This 5-bedroom property was designed in a Moroccan-Moorish style and is beautifully proportioned with large living spaces, high ceilings and a spiraling staircase off the entrance hall. The bedrooms are found across the ground and first floors and include features such as mosaic domed ceilings and intricate tiling work. Three bedrooms have access to a spacious terrace with views over the surrounding countryside and out to the ocean. On the lower ground floor, which is above ground with plenty of light, you will find another large communal area with a central bar, wine cellar for over 900 bottles, gym and Turkish bath and sauna room. Within the extensive grounds is a large pool designed for length swimming and a football pitch in need of renovation.
